Managing Change

Change is Inevitable!

This workshop utilizes the book, Our Icebergs Are Melting by John Kotter as a resource for reference.

Focus:

Change is constantly occurring in business today. Whether it is a merger/acquisition, a change in management, or a change in focus for the business, all employees and managers dread it. We help by reinforcing the ways to manage this change through a workshop that is customized to whatever change you want your employees to adapt to.

Your employees will learn:

- How to manage the changes they will face...
- Why change is needed...
- How change affects their attitudes and performance...
- How to get past the nervousness change brings...
- How a positive attitude makes change more manageable...
- Talk and how it helps embrace the changes...
- How to excel in a changing environment!

Managing Change

A 4-8 hour seminar for businesspeople who need to manage changes as a result of new management, shift in responsibilities, mergers/acquisitions, and other changes that will affect employees.

Three coaching sessions for 1 hour each follows this program starting 2-3 weeks after the workshop. This reinforces the training process so employees stay focused.
